One of Gough's Stories.

At a political meeting the speaker and audience were very much disturbed by a man who constantly called for Mr. Henry. When ever a new speaker came on this man bawled out, "Mr. Henry! Henry! Henry! I call for Mr. Henry!"

After several interruptions of this kind at each speech, a young man ascended the platform, and was soon airing his eloquence in a magnificent style, striking off powerfully in his gestures, when the old cry was heard for Mr. Henry.

Putting his hand to his mouth like a speaking trumpet, this man was bawling out at the top of his voice, "Mr. Henry! Henry! Henry! I call for Mr. Henry to make a speech!"

The chairman now rose, and remarked that it would oblige the audience if the gentleman would refrain from any further calling for Mr. Henry, as that gentleman was now speaking.

"Is that Mr. Henry?" said the disturber of the meeting. "Then der! that can't be Mr. Henry! Why that's the little cuss that told me to holler!"

Mr. Gough adds, that in telling the story to a man who never could see the "point" of a joke, after studying for some minutes the man asked him "Well, Mr. Gough, what did he tell him to holler for?"

PEOPLE who are resolved always to please, at all events, frequently overshoot the mark.—A lady of this sort, going to a friend's house, one morning, ran to the cradle as soon as she came in, to see the fine "boy." Unfortunately, the cat was occupying the baby's place; but before she could discover her mistake, she exclaimed, with uplifted eyes and hands, "Oh, what a sweet child—the very picture of its father!"

A LITTLE more animation, my dear," whispered lady B—to the gentle Susan, who was walking through a quadrille. "Do leave me to manage my own business, mamma," replied the provident nymph. "I shall not dance my ringlets out of curl for a married man."

"Of course not, my love, but I was not aware who your partner was!"

IMPORTATION OF BIRDS.—Now, Max, is importing Austrian nightingales into Mexico, the New Englanders propose to import the English skylark. Others propose to bring in the hedge sparrow. Alas! for our coon and whippersnapper. We shall have yet to go to Europe for a substitute for our beaver.—Pica-yune.

The Daily Union-Vindicator.

SATURDAY MORNING, AUG. 16, 1866.

The Philadelphia Convention.

The session of this body was quite short. It assembled on the 14th, and whose Senator Doolittle, of Wisconsin, President. We are informed that the attendance was large, and the proceedings harmonious. Whatever may be the politics of any person, he cannot look with indifference upon the meeting and deliberations of such a large number of prominent individuals as composed the Philadelphia Convention.

Judging from the synopsis of the Platform that has been furnished us, the document is brief and embraces no points that have not been fully discussed in this and nearly every other journal of the country. They thank God for the return of peace and the old Democratic States Rights doctrine. The emancipation of the negro is admitted, and protection demanded for him, while the rebel war debt is repudiated, and the doctrine of secession is denied in toto.

Cyrus W. Field.

(From the N. Y. Tribune.)

Mr. Field was born in Stockbridge, Mass., November 30, 1819. At an early age he came to New York, and commenced his business life as a clerk in a counting-house down town. So ambitious a youth could not long remain in such a position, and in a few years he became the head of a large and prosperous house of business. As a mercantile man he was eminently successful, so much so that in 1853 he was enabled to retire from active business pursuits.

After spending six months in South America, he turned his attention to the subject of oceanic telegraphs. This became his hobby, and the plan of laying a cable across the broad Atlantic his policy. In 1854, he succeeded in procuring a charter from the Legislature of Newfoundland, granting him an exclusive right for 50 years to establish a telegraph from the Continent of America to that colony, and thence to Europe.

After this Mr. Field's whole time was taken up and given to the furtherance of this undertaking.

In 1854 and 1856 he visited England for the further prosecution of his schemes, which were so far successful that in 1857 an attempt was made to lay a cable across the Atlantic ocean, which failed through the antagonism of the elements.

In 1858, after an experimental trip in the Bay of Biscay, a second attempt was made, which was also unsuccessful, as was a third. The fourth was triumphant, and America and England were neighbors. Messages were sent to and from Queen Victoria congratulating the President, and the President congratulating Queen Victoria. But, alas! this did not last; news came that continuity was destroyed, and to all intents and purposes the cable was useless.

Even this did not deter Mr. Field from making another attempt, but it was after a lapse of seven years. During the whole of this time he had been working energetically for this object, which was so far crowned with success that in the summer of 1866 the laying of the cable was again attempted, but resulted disastrously.

After all these misfortunes, Mr. Field, who is apparently unacquainted with the word "fail," has been successful—America and Europe are now joined. And the stupendous undertaking of laying the Atlantic cable will forever remain a monument to the fame and honor of Mr. Cyrus West Field.

CROPS IN UTAH.—Harvesting is in progress in Utah, and all accounts represent the crops as good, which is very satisfactory news to us, as for some years it is probable we shall be compelled to draw largely upon Utah for bread-stuffs, as well as early vegetables and green fruits, and it will always remain the best market to procure our common dried fruits in. With the extended commercial relations established between the two Territories we need not fear exorbitant prices when the crops are good there.—Advertiser.

Yes we shall have a large surplus of potatoes to sell to Montana this season, and we advise purchasers from that Territory to buy early of the farmers themselves before everything is in the hands of that voracious monster, the Salt Lake Tithing House, when double prices will be charged for produce.

"THE MORMON PROPHECY AND HIS HISTORY."—A volume 12mo., 280 pp., with 50 illustrations, including photographs of the false prophets, Jos. Smith and Brigham Young; also of General Connor and Governor Doty, and a view of the "Prophecy Block," Salt Lake City. The book is full of interesting statements as to the social and political workings of Mormonism, which seem to have been collected with a good deal of care and industry, and presented in a plain and unadorned manner. It embraces a full and complete political history of Utah. A list is given of Brigham's wives, from which we learn that he has but seven-teen of the regular sort inhabiting his harem, and twelve "proxies," whose precise functions in the family arrangement are not quite clearly understood. Mrs. Walte, the authoress of this little volume, is vouchsafed for as a lady of truth, and a woman of sense and well worth reading.—Bliss (Cal.) Independent, Aug. 16.

CONFIRMED.—Among the confirmations made by the Senate on the evening of July 28th, we find the following:

Collectors of Customs—John Cross, for the District of Marblehead, Mass., and T. E. Connor for the District of Montana and Idaho.

ANOTHER "INSTRUCTION" GONE.—The International Hotel, or, as it was better known to New Yorkers, Taylor's Saloon, is among the things that were. Mr. Taylor having disposed of the building to an express company, the furniture of the hotel and saloon were brought under the hammer of the auctioneer, and the sale commenced.—New York Times, Aug. 16.

BY PACIFIC TELEGRAPH.

(SPECIAL TO THE DAILY UNION-VINDICATOR.)

Platform of the Philadelphia Convention.

The Convention Adjourned Since the Negotiations Between Prussia and France.

Philadelphia, Aug. 16.

Convention met at 10 A. M. Doolittle in the chair. Rev. G. M. Tyler of Miss., offered a prayer.

Doolittle read a dispatch from Colorado announcing the election of A. C. Hunt, the administration candidate, for Congress in Colorado. The announcement was greeted with loud cheers.

Cowan reported the resolutions of the Committee, and subsequently Raymond reported the address, the reading of which took one hour. Held the platform and the address were adopted with enthusiastic unanimity, and repeated rounds of applause.

The National Executive Committee at Washington, and the Committee to wait on President Johnson with an official report of the proceedings, were then announced, and at half past 12 o'clock adjourned sine die with nine cheers for the Constitution and Andrew Johnson.

The platform.—The declaration of the principles, adopted by the Convention, thanks God for the return of peace, says the war maintained the authority of the Constitution and preserved the equal rights of the States. That the right of representation in Congress, and the electoral college cannot be denied by Congress or the General Government. It calls upon the people to elect to Congress men who will admit the right. Declares that certain powers are reserved to States, and among them that of prescribing qualifications for the elective franchise, and declares that no State can withdraw from the Union, nor can any be excluded. That all the States have an equal voice in ratifying the Constitutional Amendments; that slavery is abolished, and that the enfranchised slaves should receive protection of person and property; repudiates the Rebel war debt, and declares the debt of the nation sacred, says it is the duty of the Government to meet the just claims of its soldiers and sailors, and care for the survivors and widows and orphans, recognizes in Andrew Johnson a worthy ruler of the nation, and tenders him cordial and sincere support.

They were adopted, unanimously, and after the address was read by Mr. Raymond the Convention adjourned sine die. Proceedings of the National Union Convention of the third day:

Philadelphia, Aug. 16.

The National Union Convention re-assembled in the Wigwam at 10 o'clock A. M. pursuant to the adjournment. Every seat in the building was filled. The attendance of ladies was greater than on any previous day. The greatest enthusiasm prevailed. The proceedings were opened with a prayer from Rev. R. Snyder, of Pa. The President of the Convention, Doolittle, then rose and said: Before we proceed to further business, the Chair begs leave to announce as the first response to the call for this Convention, the result of the Colorado election. (Cheers.)

Denver, Col., T. Aug. 16.

Returns from all parts of the Territory renders certain the election of A. C. Hunt, the administration candidate for delegate to Congress over Chillicotte, Radical. The dispatch was greeted with great applause.

Mr. Crowell, of New York, offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That a National Union Executive Committee be appointed to be composed of two delegates from each State and Territory and the District of Columbia. The resolution was adopted.

Hon. Reverdy Johnson, who, on raising, was greeted with enthusiastic cheers, offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That a committee consisting of two delegates from each State and Territory and the District of Columbia be appointed by the Chair to wait upon the President of the United States and present him with an authentic copy of the proceedings of this Convention. The resolution was unanimously adopted.

Chas. Knapp, of the District of Columbia, offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That a Committee on Finance be appointed to consist of two delegates from each State and Territory and the District of Columbia. The resolution was adopted.

Gen. Patten, of Pa., offered a resolution on the subject of representation in the Convention, which, under rules of the Convention, was referred without reading or debate.

Cowan offered the following resolution:

Resolved, That the thanks of this Convention be and are hereby tendered to Morton M. Michael, Esq., of the City of Philadelphia, for his admirable police arrangements for the preservation of peace and good order during the sitting of the Convention. The resolution was greeted with applause and carried unanimously.

Mr. Cowan again rose and said in behalf of the Committee, who were appointed to prepare resolutions and an address, I have to state that after a careful and elaborate consideration of the same, lasting all day and part of the night, we have agreed upon some. I beg leave to report the following declaration of the principles adopted unanimously by the Committee, which the Secretary of the Convention will read, and also, an address to the people of the country, which will be read by Hon. Mr. Raymond. (Applause.)

The Secretary then proceeded to read the declaration of the principles, each clause of which was loudly applauded. The last one, which endorses the President, was greeted with prolonged cheers, in which the audience and delegates united.

Declaration of principles.—The National Union Convention now assembled in the City of Philadelphia, composed of delegates from every State and Territory in the Union, admonished by their solemn lessons which, for the last five years, it has pleased the supreme ruler of the universe to give the American people, profoundly grateful for the return of peace and desire, as a large majority of the countrymen in all sincerity are, to forget and forgive the past supporters. The Constitution as it came to us from our ancestors, regarding the Union, in its restoration as sacred, sacred then and now, and looking with deep anxiety into the future, we are confident, that, by the aid of God, and the aid of the American people, we will maintain the following declaration of principles and purposes, on which they have agreed with perfect unanimity.

New York, Aug. 17.

The morning papers have the following specials via the cable:

Paris, Aug. 15.

The Emperor Napoleon received the Prussian ambassador to-day at the Tuilleries. The Minister delivered to His Majesty the reply of the King of Prussia to the French note demanding an extension of the frontier to the Rhine. The State paper declares that the demand is inadmissible, and that Prussia will not accede to it. Napoleon replied that he had made the demand in order to satisfy public opinion in France on the subject of a rectification of the frontier. He deemed it a just demand, but at the same time acknowledged the fairness of the argument used by the Prussian Cabinet in their reply of refusal. He said that the relations existing at present between France and Prussia should not be disturbed in any case, and hoped that Prussia would not overstep the line.

Paris, Aug. 16.—Noon.

It is officially stated to-day that the French government has receded from its demands made upon Prussia for an extension of the frontier to the Rhine. France does this in the interest of peace, which she desires far more than territorial aggrandizement. The hope is also expressed by the official Journal, the Moniteur, that Prussia will not extend her project of annexation to the German States south of the Main.

Washington, Aug. 17.

The President is highly pleased with the results and proceedings of the Convention, and has been in excellent spirits all day. He regards the harmony and enthusiasm there displayed as certain indications of the success of the Conservative and endorsement of his course by the people.

It is reported on good authority that the further issue of railroads in the Southern States by the Freedmen's Bureau, except to hospitals and asylums for both freedmen and whites, is to be discontinued, and that an order to this effect will shortly be promulgated by Gen. Howard, thus throwing the support of the indigent of all classes upon local authorities.

The Daily Union-Vindicator

Local and Miscellaneous

TO ADVERTISERS.—The Vindicator is the pioneer daily newspaper of Utah. Its large circulation in every mining camp and city of Montana and Idaho, (to which it gives the telegraphic despatches a whole week ahead of the Pacific papers), makes it the most advantageous medium for advertising in these four central territories.

O. J. GOLDBRICK, traveling solicitor, for Vindicator subscriptions and advertisements, through the Pacific States and Territories.

RARE sport is anticipated at the Territorial horse show to-morrow.

The question now is who stole the evidence from the Committee Room.

The Cleveland Plaindealer insinuates that Hon. Wm. Dennison aims to succeed Ben. Wade in the United States Senate.

FOUR.—Two pugacious individuals had a "set-to" in front of the Vindicator office yesterday afternoon. Result—one eye laid open and a pair of unmentionables sadly dilapidated.

Hon. A. S. Mercer, of Oregon, was married in July to Miss Annie Stevens, nee of the "Mercer girls." The Tribune expresses the fear that "this last act of his will have a tendency to cool his ardor in the emigration business."

Why is not the evidence given before the Committee on Territories of the House of Representatives—and which Brigham Young says he has in his possession—published? Let it be done by all means. It will thus be seen who the falsifier is.

THOMAS Maguire, the enterprising theatrical manager, has engaged the Marysville theatre during Fair week. Kate Davis and a first class company is engaged for the occasion.

It has been decided by one U. S. Commissioner, Parker, residing at Buffalo, that a man cannot roll tobacco leaves into the form of a cigar, and smoke them himself, without taking out a Government license as a cigar maker.

JAMES Hamill acknowledged himself fairly beaten in the international sculling match, but he has issued a challenge to any Englishman to come to America and try his skill with him on one of our smooth rivers.

If any gentleman, who was present at the Tabernacle last Sunday, will call upon us and give a statement of the language used by Brigham Young and Heber C. Kimball, he will place us under many obligations.

In another column will be found the new advertisement of the Salt Lake and Pahranagat Stage Line. This new enterprise is in the hands of Messrs. Keith and Tileston and W. Reynolds, late of the Holladay's O. M. & E. Co., men who never make half way work of anything. The undertaking is one of considerable magnitude, and the energetic proprietors are deserving of a generous patronage.

We understand that the body of John Partridge, which was found in the river Jordan day before yesterday, was buried about three feet deep by the city authorities, just as it was found, on a sand bar on the river bank. A license as keeper of a feed stable in Nevada City, Montana, was found on his person. We understand that he belonged to the fraternity of Odd Fellows, who will give him christian interment.

From Idaho.

A $230 nugget has been found in Alturas county. Some one about Boise has been selling ammunition to hostile Indians. Mining matters about Owyhee are more lively. Several mills have been started within the last few days. The Owyhee Avalanche commences its second volume on the 18th. It is the largest paper in Idaho, and one of the best in the Territories.

From Montana.

Fifteen quartz lodes have been discovered near Virginia City within the last week. Con. Orem is reported as being in good trim for his fight with Hagb O'Neil on the 24th. The Rocky Mountain Gazette, of Helena, expected to start on the 19th. Judge Munson is about starting for the States. The Irwins are playing at Virginia City. The Post of the 11th says a tin lode has been discovered in the Hot Springs District.

STILL BETTER.—Over two and a half miles of track were laid on the U. P. R. yesterday—by one-fourth of a mile the largest day's work done yet.

These railroad men astonish everybody almost every day. When it comes to laying 2½ miles of iron track in a day, the record of the astonishing fact is its own best commentary.—Omaha Republican, 4th.

THE NEW GOVERNOR OF MONTANA.—Green Clay Smith is a native of Covington, Kentucky, and is about thirty-five years of age. He had command of the first Union regiment raised in Kentucky during the late rebellion and remained in the army during the war, rising to the rank of Brigadier General. At the time of his confirmation as Governor of Montana, he was serving his second term in Congress, as representative of the Lexington, Ky. District. His confirmation by the Senate took place July 13, and he immediately obtained an indefinite leave of absence from Congress, in order that he might, at the earliest possible moment, set out for the scene of his new labor.—Helena Republican, 2nd.

Two Cities.—Within the memory of men who have passed the middle of life, a young miner traveling in a bark canoe by Wisconsin River and Green Bay, arrived at a hamlet which few but Western travelers had ever heard of, and which had been founded by a party of regular residents. Before that time General Cass—dead, that village had grown until it had numbered 120,000 inhabitants. Within the longer space of its history it had changed its name by daily Indian, but retained by its magnificent affluents or by some of the richest different railroads connecting the city with 8,000 miles of line. The unknown hamlet of Chicago had become the greatest grain emporium in the world.

Eighteen years ago the site of another commercial metropolis was a sandy waste, sparsely dotted with the huts of a few Mexicans. Already San Francisco is a handsome city, with more than 120,000 inhabitants, but more than that, it is the outpost of a country which is distinguished for its generous wine, the quality of its wheat, and the fineness of its wool, and is to the North American continent what Spain is to Europe. The terminus of the greatest effort of railway engineering, the central station of steam navigation in the Pacific, the storehouse of the gold, silver and copper productions of one of the richest fields of mineral wealth in the world, it is now becoming to money what Chicago is to grain. The younger city does not equal the older in inhabitants nor its wealth, but though she rises of San Francisco dates eighteen years later than that of Chicago, the former is already her equal in commercial importance, and her future is brighter than the future of the other.—S. F. Bulletin.

The following is a list of the present stations of the headquarters of the six United States cavalry regiments:

First regiment—Colonel G. A. H. Blake commanding. Fort Drum, San Francisco. Second—Lieutenant Colonel and Brevet General J. N. Palmer commanding. Fort Elsworth, Kansas. Third—Colonel Marshal L. Howe commanding. en route New Mexico. Fourth—Major and Brevet Colonel John P. Hatch commanding. at Brownsville, Texas. Fifth—Brevet Major General W. H. Emory commanding. at Washington, D. C. Sixth—Lieutenant Colonel and Brevet Colonel S. D. Sturgis commanding. at Brownsville Texas.
